

County Of Albany

A State of Emergency is hereby declared in Albany County effective at 2:30 P.M. on May 23, 2023 and renewed June 22, 2023, July 22, 2023, August 21, 2023, September 20, 2023, October 20, 2023, November 19, 2023, December 19, 2023, January 18, 2024, February 17, 2024, March 18, 2024, April 17, 2024, May 17, 2024, June 16, 2024, July 16, 2024, August 15, 2024 and on September 14, 2024.

This State of Emergency has been declared as a result of the expiration on May 11, 2023 of 42 USC Sect. and 365 (Title 42 Order) which prohibited the migration into the United States by “covered noncitizens” traveling from Canada or Mexico, resulting in a surge of migration into the United States and into New York State and the anticipated migration of migrants and/or asylum seekers into the County of Albany, which will result in a severe housing crisis as a result of the limited number of temporary and permanent housing available in the County.

This State of Emergency will remain in effect until rescinded by a subsequent order.

As the Executive of Albany County, Daniel P. McCoy exercises the authority under §24 of the New York State Executive Law, to preserve the public safety and hereby render all required and available assistance vital to the security, well-being, and health of the citizens of Albany County, and, said Albany County Executive Daniel P. McCoy being temporarily unavailable to exercise his authority on this State of Emergency, directs me, Michael P. McLaughlin, as Deputy County Executive to act in his place and stead and with the same authority and power to perform the duties of the Albany County Executive in accordance with the Albany County Charter Section 305, County Law Section 401 and Public Officers Law Section 9.

I hereby direct all departments and agencies of Albany County to take whatever steps necessary to protect life and property, public infrastructure, and provide such emergency assistance deemed necessary.

By the power and authority given to Daniel P. McCoy, Albany County Executive under §24 of the New York State Executive Law, and as directed by him, I, Michael P. McLaughlin, Deputy County Executive, hereby proclaim to extend the State of Emergency effective September 14,
